Q&A

Why is the City and Chamber of Commerce doing this program?

Due to Covid-19 and the effects it has had on the economy and our residents, this program is an effort to assist low-income residents and our local South San Francisco businesses.

How long is this program running?

The program begins August 2, 2021 and the gift cards are valid until January 31, 2022.

Where can I spend the $40 gift card?

They can be used at participating merchants that are part of the Shop Local South City Program. A list of merchants can be found at www.ssf.net/SSFGiftCard

Do I have to spend the $40 all at once?

No, you can choose to use the gift card at multiple, participating businesses.

Can I get more than one $40 gift card for more members of my family?

Gift cards are limited to only one (1) gift card per household.

If I have a problem using my card, who do I contact?

Contact the vendor, Factor 4, directly at support@factor4gift.com or 1-844-444-4013

What happens if I go to get my gift card and there are none left?

The City has a limited number of gift cards and the program is on a first-come, first-served basis.
